Job description

At Orbisk, we're on a mission to create a world where zero food waste isn't just a dream—it's a reality. We combine cutting-edge tech with a sustainability-first mindset to help the hospitality industry make smarter, greener choices. As a proud B-Corp, we're leading the way in the fight against food waste, and our results speak volumes: over 3,664,373 kg of food waste eliminated in 42+ countries (and counting!).

We don't just offer technology; we're a trusted partner to our customers, working alongside them to create lasting change. Through innovation and listening closely to their needs, we've built a solution that drives both environmental and business success.

With our team growing rapidly, were looking for a Customer Success Manager to help us build the futureone thats greener, smarter, and waste-free. Lets create impact together!

What's on the menu?

As our new Customer Success Manager, you are the driving force behind helping our clients significantly reduce their food waste. Youll guide locations across our French markethotels, restaurants, and other foodservice sitesthrough their journey to becoming champions in waste reduction.

Your week centres on working closely with individual locations as their trusted Impact Coach, analysing waste patterns, identifying improvement opportunities, and supporting teams in implementing meaningful changes. Youll build strong relationships with Head Chefs, F&B Managers, and General Managers, providing the insights and coaching they rely on.

Youll be responsible for managing your portfolio with a focus on client success, retention, and proactively identifying upsell and cross-sell opportunities. Collaboration with our Product, Operations, and Data teams will be key to ensuring a smooth client experience and turning insights into real operational impact.

You become Orbisks expert in the field, transforming food waste data into actionable resultsand proving that no kitchen can do without your expertise.

Job requirements

The key ingredients for success

- You have prior experience in a B2B client-facing role (approx. 5+ years of relevant experience), ideally in a start-up or scale-up environment.
- You have experience in managing challenging clients and effectively re-engaging them.
- Fluency in French and English required! It is an added plus bonus if you speak any other languages!
